

Angela Siemens holds a Bachelor of Arts in Music and Bachelor of Music from Augustana University College in Camrose, AB. She continued her studies in Victoria, B.C. at the Victoria Conservatory of Music where she played leading roles in Opera Studio's productions of Brother XII and Romeo and Juliet. She also holds a Voice Teacher's ARCT from the Royal Conservatory of Music, and earned her Student Certificate in Yodelology. Recently, she was delighted to play the role of Coco's sister in the world premiere of "It's Coco!"- a musical fusion opera written by Cheryl Cooney and Anna Maria Kaufmann. Mrs. Siemens was voice adjunct at the Prairie Bible Institute in Three Hills, AB for two years.

Mrs. Siemens enjoys performing, adjudicating, and teaching. She has a thirst for knowledge and spends much of her time searching for fresh ideas to incorporate into her teaching. She has discovered that her passion is working with young singers. Her students have earned numerous scholarships and awards, but more importantly have cultivated a deep appreciation for music and love of singing. She believes that music is an important part of life, and strives to share her joy of music with everyone she works with. She currently teaches from her private studio in Red Deer, AB, and loves working with her choir at Revera.
