Welcome to The Olds & District Kiwanis Music Festival. I was thinking how exciting it is to have children and adults come and share their music in so many various disciplines, and yet they are not specialists or professionals, just people wanting to learn the art of music and get better. Perhaps some will end up being professionals, or possibly they will be able to play the piano, sing with a choir, join a band, recite a poem, or sing along while the radio is playing. These are all great things we can continue to do with the arts.

Many thanks to all of you who are participating! While it often takes a great deal of courage, it's also just plain fun. Thank you to the parents, teachers, guardians, volunteers, friends and family who encourage these artists and stand beside them. We need all of you in this exciting time of music and the arts in general. special thanks to the members of the Festival Board who spent so many hours volunteering their time to keep the festival running. Each plays a vital role. We cannot miss giving thanks to Wendy Durieux, our Festival co-coordinator who keeps the festival running so smoothly and efficiently! We appreciate each of you!

With music in my heart,

Trudy Ballard
