

IT'S GOING TO BE "SONGSATIONAL"!

The Olds & District Kiwanis Music Festival Society is pleased to offer our

"SONGSATIONAL"

Musical Theatre Day Camp.

Day Camp Facilitator:

Alli Duane

Alli Duane was raised in Olds Alberta. She received a Bachelor's Degree from Brigham Young University in Rexburg majoring in Chemistry with a minor in Music. She was involved in many performances during her high school years, including Oliver! (Oliver), Wizard of Oz (Scarecrow), Anne of Green Gables (Anne), Sound of Music (Liesl). She also performed with the Cardston Summer Theatre in productions of Guys and Dolls, Hello Dolly, Music Man (Marian), Into the Woods (Jack's Mother), Sherlock the Musical. She spent 3 years teaching at the School of Music and Dance in White Rock, BC before coming back to Alberta where she has opened a private music studio.

It's a great way to learn about many aspects of musical theatre, including script writing, choreography, singing, acting, and character work.

We got to play games we knew and games that we didn't know!

...2023 Participant

It was my first musical, and everyone was awesome.

...2023 Participant

It's hard, loud, tiring and fun. (Bring more food than you expect to eat)

..2023 Participant

You might be scared at first but as you try it, you'll love it

..2023 Participant

I am thinking about coming back to camp next year because it is so amazing!
